THE SEVEN-POINT BIBLICAL BUSINESS AUDIT

A working diagnostic for Christian builders.

Ninety minutes. Two pens if you are married. The Word first.

Edition I · Free · © 2026 Work Faith Family™. All rights reserved.

HOW TO SIT WITH THIS

Before you score a single chamber

This is an examination, not a brand exercise.

Set a clock for ninety minutes. Close the tools that make you feel competent. If you share a household, the second pen is not optional. You may disagree on a score. Write both numbers. The disagreement is data.

Score each chamber from 1 to 5. Use the key below. Do not average yourself into amber to stay comfortable. A red score that is true is already a kind of health.

RED · 1-2	AMBER · 3	GREEN · 4-5
Unrepented or unnamed. This chamber is governing the others in the wrong direction.	You can see the issue. Practice has not caught the insight.	Imperfect and honest. A rule exists and is mostly kept.

What you will have at the end

- A score for each of the seven chambers
- One sentence of truth per chamber
- Three repairs you will actually attempt
- A suggested next rung on the Work Faith Family™ ladder — which you are free to ignore

What this audit will not do

- It will not tell you that you are a visionary.
- It will not guarantee provision.
- It will not replace a pastor, a counsellor, an accountant or a spouse.

THE SEAL

Three pillars, seven chambers

The chambers are how the pillars are tested in an actual week.

Faith is tested in Calling, Character and Commission. Family is tested in Calendar and, more than people admit, in Cash. Work is tested in Customers, Craft and Cash. When one pillar is sentimental and the others are professional, the house is already leaning.

Write the venture you are auditing. If you have two, audit the one that is eating the calendar.

Name of the venture

Date · Place · Who is holding the second pen

CHAMBER 01

Calling

To test whether this venture exists as an assignment or as an applause-seeking.

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you.

Jeremiah 1:5

Proverbs 16:3 · Ephesians 2:10 · Romans 12:3–8

Questions

1. In one sentence, what did God ask you to build — not what the market rewarded?
2. Who confirmed this call who does not financially benefit from you continuing?
3. What would you still do if it never became impressive?
4. Which part of the work are you doing only because someone else's calling looked fruitful?
5. If the Lord closed the company next month, what would remain of your identity?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Write the call in twelve words. Read it to a spouse or elder this week. If you cannot, the call is still a private myth.

Character

To bring the hidden corners — speech, books, inbox, private browsing, private bitterness — under the same light as the brand.

Whoever is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and whoever is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.

Luke 16:10

Proverbs 11:1 · Psalm 15 · 1 Timothy 3:2–3

Questions

1. What would an honest person find in your sent folder that contradicts your public voice?
2. Where do you round numbers, dates, or testimonials?
3. Whom have you paid late while narrating cashflow as ‘tight’ rather than ‘chosen’?
4. Is there a habit you would immediately hide if a disciple shadowed you for a day?
5. When did you last confess a business sin to a person with authority to ask you again?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Name one hidden corner in writing. Tell one trusted person. Put a review date thirty days from today.

CHAMBER 03

Customers

To test whether the people who pay you are neighbours or units.

You shall love your neighbour as yourself.

Mark 12:31

Philippians 2:4 · Leviticus 19:13 · Matthew 7:12

Questions

1. Can you describe the customer's actual wound without using your product's vocabulary?
2. Where does your marketing flatter a fear you could have calmed for free?
3. What do you refuse to sell even though it would convert?
4. How do refunds, delays and complaints sound when you are tired?
5. Who is served by this company who cannot pay you — and is that more than a story you tell?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Write a one-page 'neighbour rule' for sales and support. Read last month's customer emails against it.

CHAMBER 04

Craft

To test whether the work itself is worthy of the Maker whose image you bear.

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men.

Colossians 3:23

Exodus 31:1–6 · Proverbs 22:29 · 2 Timothy 2:15

Questions

1. What part of the delivery would you be ashamed to show a master of your trade?
2. Where is ‘good enough’ actually sloth wearing a humble accent?
3. Who is allowed to tell you the work is not yet good?
4. Has speed become a theology?
5. What skill should you be apprenticed in this year rather than teaching?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Choose one artefact you ship. Repair it to a standard you would sign. Do not announce the repair. Just repair it.

CHAMBER 05

Cash

To test whether money is stewarded as a tool and a sacrament, or used as anaesthesia.

Honour the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce.

Proverbs 3:9

1 Timothy 6:17–19 · Proverbs 13:11 · Romans 13:8

Questions

1. Do you know this month's number without opening an app in panic?
2. Is there an owner's wage, or does the household eat leftovers of the company?
3. Where is the firstfruits line — not the leftover gift when you feel generous?
4. What debt exists because of impatience rather than provision?
5. If a younger disciple copied your pricing and your private spending, would you be willing to own that copy?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Write four numbers on one card: owner's wage, buffer target, firstfruits, and the debt you will not add. Put the card in the book you open first.

CHAMBER 06

Calendar

To test whether Faith and Family have a scheduled claim on the week, or only the scraps.

It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil.

Psalm 127:2

Exodus 20:8–11 · Mark 6:31 · Psalm 90:12

Questions

1. When is Sabbath, and who is allowed to break it?
2. What does a normal Thursday evening look like to the people who share your name?
3. Which meeting exists only because you will not disappoint a stranger?
4. If the company grew 40 percent this year, which household practice would die first?
5. Where do you use ‘busy’ as a moral credential?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Put next Sabbath in the diary before you put the next launch. Tell the household the time. Keep it once without announcing your holiness.

CHAMBER 07

Commission

To test whether the fruit of the work makes disciples, blesses a place, and adorns the gospel — or only enlarges a name.

Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 5:16

Matthew 28:19–20 · Jeremiah 29:7 · Galatians 6:10

Questions

1. What about this company would still matter if your brand vanished?
2. Whom have you discipled in the work, not merely hired?
3. How does the city, the trade, or the poor fare because you trade here?
4. Where have you used God’s name as a marketing advantage?
5. If this is not mission, what is it — and is that allowed to be enough for a season?

Notes — write in sentences, not slogans

Score this chamber 1 – 5

One next obedience

Name one act of commission this month that cannot be posted. Do it. Do not file it under content.

A RULE OF LIFE

Four lines a builder can keep

If the Rule is beautiful and unlived, it is decoration.

Complete these four lines. Read them every Sunday for a quarter. Revise them at the next Audit, not in a mood.

Faith — When the Word gets the first claim on the week

Family — What the household can count on without asking

Work — The one priority the company is allowed this quarter

Stop — What you will not build, sell, or attend, in order to keep the three

Signed

IF YOU CLIMB

A map, not a funnel

Buy only the rung that repairs a red chamber.

If Calling or Character is red — stay here. Read Scripture. Speak to a pastor. Do not buy a course to outrun a confession.

If Customers or Craft is red — the Decision Cards and the Template Packs are the smallest sufficient tools.

If Cash is red — the Budget pack before any course. Courses do not replace ledgers.

If Calendar is red — the Planner and the 30-Day Devotional. Your problem is not information.

If Commission is red — Called to Build, then the Circle. Do not monetise a witness you do not have.

If several chambers are amber and the work is already real — Built by the Word, or a cohort if you have been hiding in self-paced rooms.

If the knot is particular and costly — request an Intensive. Attach these pages.

Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labour in vain. — Psalm 127:1
